

Nancy Jo Hinsen
Singer

National League of American Pen Women

Art, Books, Entertainment, and More
Celebrating Creative Pen Women

August 3rd, an entertaining event showcasing talented men and women in the arts. A dance performance, professional standup comic, music; a 60's sing-along with Paul Wesling; a ventriloquist; Guitarist-singer Nick Mata; John Kimball sketch artist creating drawings on the spot; author's and artist's showcase. Pen Women are talented in many areas of the arts. You will not be bored.

Date: Saturday, August 3, 2024

Time: Stroll through anytime from 11:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.

Where: Headen Inman Museum House, 1509 Warburton Ave at Don Ave, Santa Clara. Look for the balloons and canopy tents
Enjoy entertainment throughout the event.

Contact email: NLAPWsc@gmail.com

Open to the public. Free Admission

Edie Matthews
standup comedian as
Mae West

Carol Greene, Ventriloquist

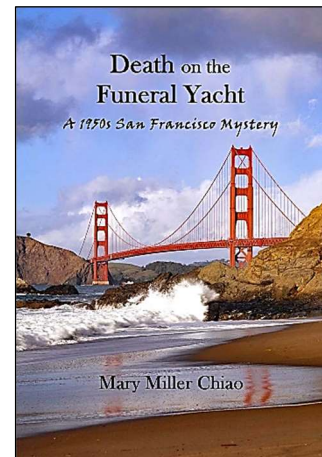

Our mission is to encourage, recognize, and promote the production of creative work of professional standard through outreach activities, monetary awards to college students, provide educational, creative, and professional support to members and nonmembers. Our core values are respect for one another, and respect, knowledge, creation and preservation of the arts.

By Jude Tolley
Girl in Garden
Oil on canvas

Patty Dick
and
Michael Wright

Mary Miller Chiao
Death on the Funeral Yacht
A 1950s San Francisco Mystery